The author/agent (the “undersigned”) hereby grants the International Organization for Advancement of Research Publications (the “IOARP”) permission to publish the article referenced above in the IOARP conference proceedings to be also made available through IOARP Digital Library™. The undersigned warrants that the article has not been published or currently being offered elsewhere for publication. The undersigned does so with full understanding.

The undersigned, grants the IOARP an unlimited, worldwide, irrevocable permission to use, distribute, publish, license, exhibit, record, digitize, broadcast, reproduce and archive the article referenced above, in any format or medium, whether now known or hereafter developed. Although authors are permitted to re-use all or portions of the work in other works, this does not include granting third-party requests for reprinting, republishing, or other types of re-use. The undersigned agrees that the IOARP must handle all such third-party requests.

Authors and/or their employers shall have the right to post the accepted version of IOARP-copyrighted articles on their own personal servers or the servers of their institutions or employers without permission from the IOARP provided that the posted version includes a prominently displayed IOARP copyright notice and, when published, a full citation to the original IOARP publication, including a link to the article abstract in IOARP Digital Library.

The undersigned hereby represents and warrants that the work is original and that the he/she is the author of the work, except possibly for material such as text passages, figures, and data that clearly identify the original source, with permission notices from the copyright owners where required. The undersigned represents that he/she has the power and authority to make and execute this assignment. For jointly authored articles, one of the authors should sign as an authorized agent for the others.
