

Message from ICMLE 2015 Organizing Committee

On behalf of the Technical Programme Committee, I welcome you to the ICMLE 2015 – IOARP International Conference on Management, Leadership and Entrepreneurship. It is a great pleasure to hold ICMLE 2015 here in London on 18-19 December, 2015.

ICMLE 2015 offers a forum to academics, scientists, researchers, and practitioners for discussion, exploration and development of theoretical and practical aspects of management, leadership, and entrepreneurship. ICMLE 2015 aims to provide the participants with a unique networking opportunity, and a platform for imparting knowledge and sharing contemporary research ideas.

Besides accepting author contributions on core topics in management, leadership and entrepreneurship, at the ICMLE 2015, we are particularly interested in manuscripts employing interdisciplinary approaches potentially drawing from domains such as sociology, psychology, cultural studies, economics, pedagogical studies, history, gender studies, health, politics, and criminology.

Authors have submitted their contributions in form of theoretical and empirical papers employing qualitative, quantitative and critical methods, action-based research, and case studies to the ICMLE 2015.

We are very excited to share that authors from around the world have shown their interest in the conference. This year, we are expecting more than 50 delegates from industry and academia to attend the ICMLE 2015.

The two day event comprises of tutorials sessions, keynote speeches, author presentations, a PhD forum, award ceremony, a complementary London Riverboat Trip, and various opportunities of socialising during luncheons and coffee breaks.

An international conference of this size and diversity requires support of many people and organizations. I would like to take this opportunity to thank our authors, participants, keynote speakers, tutorial organizer, session chairs, reviewers, TPC members, our volunteers, the IOARP staff, and our consultants FCS UK for their support. I would also like to extend my appreciation to our sponsors Cambridge Regional College UK and our supporters Queen Mary University of London in organizing ICMLE 2015.

Once again, we would like to extend our sincere and warm welcome to all the participants. We hope you have a nice time at ICMLE 2015 and we look forward to welcoming you again at the ICMLE 2016 here in London, United Kingdom.
